ARTICLE I: NAME AND PURPOSE

I.I Name

The organization will be referred to as the University of Regina Muslim Students' Association. Other commonly used names that will be used to reference the organization will be UR MSA or simply as the MSA.

I.II Objectives and Goals

The MSA is committed to seeking the pleasure of Allah (SWT) by adhering to the teachings of the Qur'an, the Authentic Sunnah, and by following the guidance of esteemed scholars within the Muslim community. The organization will adhere to all regulations defined by the University of Regina Students' Union and the rules and regulations set out the by the administration of the University. Under these guidelines, the MSA exists:

- i) To address the needs of the Muslim population within the University of Regina, and work to improve the quality of their post-secondary experience.
- ii) To serve as a powerful voice and advocate for all Muslims.
- iii) To work on educating the general student population on the religion of Islam.

ARTICLE II: Operational Strategies

II.I Prayer

Given the importance of the Salah (prayer) within Islam, the MSA:

- i) Will work to provide and maintain a permanent prayer hall(s), or Musallah, for the Muslims to establish prayers and facilitate other functions of the MSA.
- ii) The MSA will work to provide an ablution, or wudu, area for the Muslims.
- iii) The MSA is responsible for ensuring a space is provided for Jummah Prayer (Friday sermons) that accommodates all those who wish to attend. Given the significance of prayer and the high attendance, the prayer may occur multiple times or at other areas of campus to ensure all can attend.

- iv) The MSA is responsible for ensuring that a Khateeb is present to give the sermon and lead the prayer.

II.II – Relations

To fulfil the roles listed in article one, the MSA will maintain constant relations and a mode of communication with other organizations in order to:

- i) Ensure halal foods options are made available throughout the food outlets on campus.
- ii) Organize various Islamic, academic and non-academic activities and events to fulfill its purpose to the Muslim students on campus.
- iii) Promote connections between Muslims at the University of Regina, to encourage academic cooperation, tutoring, interest groups, etc.
- iv) See to the circulation of relevant, Islamic publications to those who request it.
- v) Promote respectful interfaith dialogues and have knowledgeable MSA candidates and/or guests.
- vi) Participate in campus events and cooperate with campus interest groups to promote shared values.
- vii) Play a leading role in organizing events that deal with public outreach, helping others, and raising awareness on campus.

ARTICLE III: Memberships

Membership in the MSA is obtained by signing up for the mailing list, by expressing interest via email, social media, or at any MSA event. Members will be tracked under the systems set out by the Students' Union.

III.I – General Body

Members of the general body are any actively enrolled students or non-students (University faculty and staff) who desire to be a participant in the MSA. Members are entitled to all MSA privileges.

III.II – Executive Team

Members of the Executive Team are elected by the members of the General Body. These members are individuals who form a team that will aim to accomplish the objectives set out above. These members assume their respective roles and will operate the MSA.

Article IV: Executive Team

“Honour Allah’s covenant when you make a pledge, and do not break your oaths after confirming them, having made Allah your guarantor. Surely Allah knows all you do.”

(Quran 16:91)

The URMSA Executive Team, consisting of seven elected formal members, is responsible for leading the organization. They will develop and implement a plan of activities and programs throughout their term. The executive team will be put into place by the end of May and will remain on the team until the next elections, to be held at the start of May. The executive team will hold in-person meetings at least twice a month unless otherwise justified by the council.

The following will outline the duties and responsibilities of each of the seven of the URMSA Executive Team:

- 1) President
 - a. This position is held by a previous Executive who has acknowledged and adhered to the MSA objectives. The President’s Role will consist of the following:
 - i. Serve as the main spokesperson for the URMSA.
 - ii. Forge strategic partnerships with other clubs and societies.
 - iii. Lobby for the URMSA at the Students’ Union and to the Board of Directors of the University of Regina
 - iv. Oversee the general operations of the UR MSA and will ensure that other executive members are fulfilling their tasks. It will be the role of the president to ensure appropriate delegation of work among the Executives.
 - v. The President may be given signing authority of the bank accounts upon request.
 - vi. Ensuring that the UR MSA remains ratified with the Student Union

2) Vice President of Finance

- a. The member holding this position is responsible for:
 - i. Managing MSA finances, including fundraising (donation boxes), budgeting, preparing financial reports and statements.
 - ii. All financial related requests are made through this member. Nothing should be purchased or expensed unless there is direct approval from this member.
 - iii. This is the only member who will automatically have signing authority on all the MSA bank accounts.
 - iv. This member is responsible for the collection and recording of funds including cash and online transactions.
 - v. If members of the general body requests access to the MSA financials, this member must deliver the reports in a timely manner.
 - vi. Ensuring that PEC funding and operational funding requests are made to the University Student Union.

3) Vice President of Communication

- a. The member holding this position is responsible for:
 - i. The key responsibility of this member is to coordinate the Jummah Salah. This will include finding the Khateeb for each Salah. If one cannot be found, the role of Khateeb will fall upon a male member of the MSA executive team.
 - ii. This member will take on the role of sending out weekly announcements through multiple channels including emailing a newsletter, updating social media platforms (Facebook, Instagram, WhatsApp) and updating the website. Weekly announcements will be done on Thursdays.
 - iii. Taking meeting minutes for all general, council, or executive meetings.

4) Vice President of Brother's Affairs – Only a brother can hold this position.

- a. The member holding this position is responsible for:
 - i. Acting as a bridge of communication between the brothers (Muslim males) and the MSA executive team.
 - ii. Proposing events and activities that will engage the brothers– discussions, sports intramurals, and tournaments, etc.
 - iii. Contacting any local individual, group, or organization on behalf of the MSA.
 - iv. Organizing and directing volunteers for all events.

- v. Moderate the Brothers WhatsApp chat.
- 5) Vice President of Sister’s Affairs – Only a sister can hold this position.
- a. The member holding this position is responsible for:
 - i. Acting as a bridge of communication between the sisters (Muslim female) and the MSA executive team.
 - ii. Proposing events and activities that will engage the sisters– discussions, sports, tea and talk, etc.
 - iii. Contacting any local individual, group, or organization on behalf of the MSA.
 - iv. Organizing and directing volunteers for all events.
 - v. Moderate the Sisters WhatsApp chat.
- 6) Vice President of Social Affairs (Two Positions)– One spot is reserved for a Sister. The other spot can be held by either a brother or sister.
- a. The member holding this position is responsible for:
 - i. Creating all posters and other social media posts relating to the events
 - ii. Will work out the logistics of these activities and reserve the appropriate facilities.
 - iii. Will help to organize general social events for both Muslims and non-Muslims.
 - iv. Will handle all social media platforms and update them accordingly.

Article V: Elections

VI – Elections Procedures

Elections will be held in May of each year. The election process for the URMSA Executive Council starts with a nomination period, where nominees, who must be active members of the MSA, submit a summary of their experience and participation. Unless stated otherwise, both males and females can run for a position on the board. The council appoints an election committee to oversee the electoral process, ensuring only valid members vote.

V.II - Resignation

Resignation from the council is contingent on providing acceptable reasons approved by the remaining members. The council may appoint a replacement with at least a 50% approval from the current members.

Article VI: Advisory Board

The advisory board will consist of four individuals who will remain on the board until one decides to step down. The four individuals will consist of:

- i) A Muslim professor at the University of Regina.
- ii) A Muslim professor at the University of Regina.
- iii) A previous MSA Executive team member who has been out of the team for at least three years.
- iv) A local Imam or Sheikh.

This board will be in place as a point of reference/contact for the MSA executive team. This board holds no official power or voting rights; however, they do reserve the right to meet with the executive team at any time.

Article VII: General Member Meetings and Constitution amendments

Meetings involving the general body will be held at the discretion of the MSA or if at least 25% of members of the general body request one. Amendments may only be made to the constitution with a simple majority vote at a General Body Meeting. The amendment must be proposed by an executive member and will be put into effect after a voting process is done during the meetings.

If members of the general body wish to make changes to the constitution, a formal proposal must be made at least 48 hours prior to the general meeting.

“Indeed, Allah commands justice, grace, as well as generosity to close relatives. He forbids indecency, wickedness, and aggression. He instructs you so perhaps you will be mindful.”
